Rocky Ridge one of top courses around

A staple in the west central Indiana golf community, Rocky Ridge Golf Club in Darlington has been around for over 30 years. The public golf course is a top destination for golfers all over the state, and home to dozens of members from Montgomery County.

The 18-hole golf course is challenging for any level of golfer, and offers one of the best landscapes in the area with a variety of open and wooded holes, with water in play on several holes as well.

Rocky Ridge continues to maintain their course with an irrigation system, tight fairways and some of the best greens around.

Rocky Ridge always offers a number of outings and leagues throughout the playing year, and welcomes outings as well. The course has a fully-stocked pro shop and a restaurant with a full-service bar.

For full membership fees and daily rates, which include a variety of options and senior discounts, call the course at 765-794-4444.

Turkey Run Golf Course excited for 2024

Turkey Run Golf Club is an exciting 18 hole championship golf course located 6 miles east of Turkey Run State Park on State Road 47 in scenic Parke County Indiana. You'll never get bored with the challenging course layout which includes rolling terrain, mature trees and 3 ponds. The well manicured, undulating greens are a pleasure to play. Our reasonable rates and many weekly specials make this one of the states best kept secrets.

There are four sets of tees to choose (including senior tees) from with the Championship tees measuring 6523 yards. The slope is 124 and the rating is 70.5.22

The 18-hole championship golf course will once again offer special events throughout the week. The social club plays a 9-hole scramble every Tuesday at 5 p.m., and 18-holes every other Sunday at 2 p.m. The men's league tees off at 5 p.m. on Monday evenings, while the women's league plays on Mondays as well.

There is a weekly Wednesday Senior scramble.

Tee times are required on the weekends.

For full daily rates and membership rates, visit Turkey Run Golf Club on the web at www.turkeyrun-golf.com or call at 765-435-2048.

Six ways to improve your putting skills

Golf requires mastery of a wide array of skills. Many novice players focus on improving skills related to their swings. Yet they shouldn't overlook the importance of improving their short games as well. In golf, short game refers to the golf shots golfers must make when they're near or on the green. According to Golf Distillery, a golf play information and tips site, shots like bunker shots, chips and putts are part of the short game. Improving these skills can go a long way toward bettering one's game.

1. Learn "green-reading" techniques. According to a Golf Magazine-sponsored study through Pinehurst Golf Academy, 65 percent of golfers under-read the break on a typical putt. Incorrect reads can add to many lost strokes. Reading the green involves determining the correct slope and distance. Golfers who take depth-perception tests and continually practice their skills at reading both the distance and the slope can improve their putts.

2. Change perspective. Different putts require different perspectives in order to assess both distance and slope, according to Todd Sones Impact Golf Schools. If the putt is downhill, Sones suggests reading it from behind the hole. If the putt is uphill, read it from behind the ball.

3. Practice consistent putter travel distance. While the total length of a putt stroke depends on the length of the putt, many golf instructors recommend consistency with the distance the putter head travels. Keep the same distance on the back stroke as on the forward stroke. This will help create a nice, even roll. Most beginners tend to short their back strokes and increase their forward strokes, resulting in less ball control.

4. Focus on an imaginary channel. When putting, imagine a three- or four-inch channel from the ball to the hole. Rather than staring at the ball, golfers can track their eyes down that imaginary line, suggests the experts at Golf Digest. Keeping a simpler focus rather than over-thinking things can improve putting.

5. Keep a steady head. Instead of following the ball with one's eyes, a golfer should hold the focus on the start of the putt to foster a more steady head.

6. Change ball placement. Try moving to position the ball just forward of the center of the stance. This helps the putter make contact at the right moment to achieve the slight lift needed for a successful putt.

Practicing at home or with a golf instructor is a good way to improve putting skills. A strong short game can be the key to improving your overall game.

Country Club welcomes new members

The Crawfordsville Country Club is the premier golf facility in Montgomery County and surrounding area. Our mission as a golf staff is to provide the membership and their guests with a high quality product and unmatched, personal customer service. One visit to our facility and you can see the difference between us and the competition.

While not the longest course around, the Crawfordsville CC's 18-hole course challenges even the best players who step onto it. With a tree-lined front nine and rolling hills back nine, the CCC offers variety to the player without sacrificing playability. The diminutive bent grass greens are a definite challenge on every hole with 16 of them being guarded by sand bunkers. Although water comes in to play on only 2 holes, the 3rd hole at the CCC is the signature hole of the facility and is guarded by a small pond and creek short with out of bounds long and right.

Crawfordsville Country Club is a private, full service, family-oriented social club dedicated to providing members superior service, enjoyable events, attentive staff and unmatched amenities in a cost effective and personable manner. Memberships are available at numerous levels to accommodate your needs: Golf, Social, and Clubhouse. Golf memberships have full access to every amenity at the Crawfordsville CC. Social memberships have limited access to the golf course, but have unlimited access to the restaurant and pool facilities. Clubhouse memberships are restricted to the restaurant facility. Junior memberships are also available for younger families, singles, and adolescents wanting to join the CCC.

Birck Boilermaker Golf offers two top courses

With two courses — Purdue University offers a unique golf experience in the Birck Boilermaker Golf Complex

The Ackerman-Allen Course, a Pete Dye design, is an 18-hole, parkland-style, par-72 championship golf course featuring large bent-grass greens, fairways and tees. The layout presents a challenge for golfers of all abilities with rolling hills, tree-lined fairways, white sand bunkers, and minimal water hazards. Ackerman-Allen offers five sets of tees with the championship tees playing over 7,500 yards and the forward tees playing at 5,300 yards.

The Kampen Course, a Pete Dye design, is an 18-hole, links-style, par-72 championship golf course featuring large bent-grass greens, fairways and tees. The layout presents a challenge for golfers of all abilities with vast sand bunkers, native grasslands, ponds and a natural celery bog. Kampen offers five sets of tees with the championship tees playing over 7,400 yards and the forward tees playing at 5,300 yards. Kampen is rated one of the top collegiate courses in the nation and has been awarded 4.5 stars on Golf Digest's "Places to Play." Kampen receives high marks as it is ranked as one of the most difficult golf courses in Indiana. The course has also played host to a number of prestigious collegiate and public tournaments such as the 2000 Men's Big Ten Championship, the 2003 Women's NCAA Championship, the 2004 Indiana Open, the 2005 Women's Western Amateur, and the 2008 Men's NCAA Championship. The course is named in honor of Emerson Kampen and his support of Purdue Athletics. Mr. Kampen's statue overlooks the first tee.

Much to do at Coyote Crossing

From golf to weddings and events, Coyote Crossing Golf Club is a semi-private, award winning, Hale Irwin designed golf course located just off I-65 in West Lafayette, Indiana.

Our beautiful bent grass, park-land-style course features multiple creek crossings that lead you through wildlife in native prairies, wetlands, and forests while challenging every club in your bag.

Our player-friendly, relaxed club experience includes premium carts, a large practice area, and a restaurant with a full bar inside our scenic clubhouse, all of which are certain to provide a memorable round.

As a semi-private club, Coyote Crossing Golf Club is open to the public, offering daily fee rates, group packages, and outings.

Daily rates range from $20 to $89 depending on the season, day of week, and time of day.

With five sets of tees on every hole, the course will offer a challenge for players of all caliber. Irwin describes the terrain as 'near perfect, with views of open meadows to mature wooded areas.' Yardage of the par 72 layout is 6,839 yards from the exhibition markers to 4,881 yards from the forward tees.

Meet you at the 19th hole!
